

FAMILY CONNECTION

Use the following thoughts and questions to have a spiritual conversation as a family. Don't emphasize having the right answer, but focus on spending time discussing the Word as a family.

SCRIPTURE | Genesis 15:8-13,17-18; 17:1-8,15-19

SESSION SUMMARY

This week, God makes a covenant with Abram, changes his name to Abraham, and reaffirms His promise that Abraham will be the father of many nations through a son born to his wife Sarah (formerly Sarai). Through God's covenant with Abraham, we see that God will always keep His promises to us. These are the key takeaways:

- God is committed to His people.
- God keeps His word.

CONVERSATION QUESTIONS

- What are some ways our family has seen God's commitment to us in the past? How can that encourage us as we look to the future?
- When has our family struggled to trust God's promises?
- Where do we still feel like we're waiting for an answer to prayer or waiting for God to move? How can these interactions between God and Abraham help?

FAMILY CHALLENGE

Grab a container, several small slips of paper, and writing utensils. Invite each family member to write out ways they've seen God's faithfulness to our family. These can be big ideas (like, "He sent Jesus to die for my sins"), or specific to your family (like, "He brought me a good friend when I really needed one"). Fold up the slips of paper and place them in the container. Set this somewhere in your house where you'll remember it and commit to drawing one out each day, each week, or whenever you begin to doubt God's faithfulness and need to remember that He will always keep His promises to us.
